

SUBJECT: Music Technology

QUALIFICATION: AS / A2

QUALIFICATION LEVEL: Level 4

QUALIFICATION TYPE: A Level

AWARDING BODY: ????

Qualification Accreditation Number (QAN): AS 5003103x, A2 50031028

DESCRIPTION

Music technology plays a key role in music across the world. This subject is designed to open up a range of exciting tasks enabling pupils to explore the use of technology in the professional world of music.

The course enables pupils to gain knowledge and experience that is directly related to a number of professional applications in music and the media. This is a largely practical course with 60% coursework.

AS & A2

Sequenced Realised performance
Multi-track recording
Creative sequenced arrangement
Listening and Analysing—examination
Composing using Technology
Analysis and production

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

Unit one is assessed practically by producing a CD and logbook.
Unit two is assessed by examination.

WHAT ARE THE ENTRY REQUIREMENTS?

A grade C at GCSE Music is needed along with some experience of using technological equipment.

HOW WILL I BE ASSESSED?

Interested in developing a career in sound engineering, teaching, composing, arranging, performing or record producing. Alternatively, studying music technology at university is a possible future path.

FUTURE OPPORTUNITIES?

You should be a keen interest in music and technology, who enjoys creating and listening to different styles of music, and who wishes to extend their practical experience and understanding of music technology.

FURTHER INFORMATION

www.edexcel.org.uk